ENGINEERING STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER EVENTS:

All students are welcome to attend.

More information can be found at https://ess.unm.edu/events or through our app (succESS).

September is Suicide Awareness & Prevention Month

Every Lobo matters; You are one of the pack; You are not alone; We have your back.
THIS WEEK:

- Professional Development Opportunity: Artificial Intelligence & Careers in Tech

  University of New Mexico and nonprofit AI4ALL have partnered to offer students the opportunity to apply to the College Pathways Discover AI program

  Available to ALL Majors!!!

HOW

APPLY HERE

Application Deadline: September 7, 2022

WHAT

- Discover AI is a virtual program in partnership with your school that provides students with a project-based introduction to computer science, machine learning, data, artificial intelligence and tech careers through the lens of societal and ethics impact. In addition, students get access to AI industry leaders and are guided through a roadmap with the goal of cultivating a future career in the AI industry.

- What are both the positive and negative implications of AI technology on society? How can (and does) AI affect communities in today's world? Through research, discussions, and reflection, you will explore the intersectionality of AI with other fields and articulate your own mindful perspective of AI. The program is facilitated at no cost to students.

- Students that complete the program will emerge with actionable next steps in pursuing an academic or career path in AI - and the opportunity to continue in the following semester to our second program, Apply AI and direct mentorship from industry leaders in the AI and tech industry from companies like Google, Capital One, Facebook, Slalom Consulting, Accenture, Pearson and more. At the end of the Discover AI program, participants receive an AI4ALL Discover AI certificate of completion.

WHO

- If you're a Computer Science major, the program is a great supplement to your existing course work.

- If your major is NOT Computer Science, we welcome you as well! If accepted, you will have the opportunity to learn more about artificial intelligence in a safe and thoughtful environment that offers you the opportunity to consider AI as a future career option and as a presence in your major industry/discipline.

- AI4ALL programs are designed to bring together and highlight voices that have been historically excluded, and that will lead and shape the future of AI.

- Freshman, Sophomores, and Juniors
WHEN

- Launch is in September with Synchronous & Asynchronous Instruction. Please review the program's application for more details.

Discover AI Program Info Sessions
The dates and times are listed in the RSVP link:
Sessions are a 30-min intro to the program & a space for interested students to ask questions.
The sessions are open to all partner schools & we present the same content at all meetings.

- When: Wednesday, September 7, 2022. 10:30 AM - 3 PM.
- Where: UNM Centennial Engineering Center, 1st floor.

- I am Engineering and Computer Science & Find Your Pack - Come let us know what it means to be an engineer or computer scientists, network with others with similar interested, and see what the the School of Engineering student organizations have to offer you!

- What: 1st & 2nd Year Student Event Series
- When: Friday, September 9, 2022. 1 - 4:30 PM.
- Where: Centennial Engineering Center - STAMM Room (1044)
- Presenter: ESS's very own Yadéeh Sawyer - Retention & Engagement Specialist and coordinator of the ESS Mentoring & Research Programs.
More info:

- We believe that all members of the Engineering and Computing community should feel confident expressing "I am an Engineer/Computer Scientist." Whether you are an undergraduate who has just decided to join the major, or a senior researcher, you promote knowledge of engineering and computing concepts to the greater public and are a valuable asset to the the School of Engineering. Your outside interests help make you who you are and contribute to your success. Read about some examples with our Student Showcases.

- Create products that represent them as an Engineer or Computer Scientists either on-site or bring something with you to add to the display.
  - We will have post-it notes, paper, colored pencils, markers, large rolls of paper for larger images, and even playdough or modeling clay for sculpting.
  - Can't make the event or want to see what others created? We will have the products displayed in the ESS hallway (CENT 2080).

- RSVP's via https://ess.unm.edu/events or through our succESS app (https://success.unm.edu/events). RSVP is preferred but not required. RSVP will get you week before and day before email reminders.
New Announcements:

- Rocket League on Twitch - Join the ESS Center and the UNM Esports Club to answer your questions about UNM Engineering & Computing.
- What: 1st & 2nd Year Student Event Series
- When: Wednesday, September 21, 2022. 6:30 - 8:30 PM.

Topics (Attend all 3 and earn a Lab Safety Certificate from Environmental Health & Safety):
- 9/13/22: Part 2 - Hierarchy of Controls & Basics of PPE (RSVP HERE)
- 9/27/22: Part 3 - Chemical Waste Management (RSVP coming soon)
- See August, October, and November for additional parts and additional offerings of Part 2 & 3.

Partners/Presenters: Environmental Health & Safety
RSVP’s via https://ess.unm.edu/events or through our succESS app (https://success.unm.edu/events). RSVP is preferred but not required. RSVP will get you week before and day before email reminders. RSVP for EACH desired session.

STEM Mixer & Industry Networking Social - Come network with others interested in STEM, including STEM Professionals and Mentors, as well as Industry Representatives. This event is open to all UNM students, as well as UNM staff and faculty, along with NM STEM Professionals. This is an opportunity to network with our STEM Mentors, Professionals, and Industry Partners in a dynamic and relaxed ambiance.

- What: Career and Professional Development Event
- When: Tuesday, September 13, 2022. 4:30 - 8 PM.
  - 4:30 - 6 PM will focus on Mixing with STEM Professionals and Mentors (light snacks provided)
  - 6 - 8 PM will expand to include Industry Networking with representatives from various local companies (hors d'oeuvres served)
    - If you are a company representative interested in participating in this event, please reach out to Nada Abdelhack at esscareers@unm.edu
- Where: Centennial Engineering Center - STAMM Room (1044) & the adjacent courtyard
- More info:
  - FLYER.
  - An evening of career networking and hors d'oeuvres!
  - Business casual dress is encouraged and don't forget to bring your Resumes.
  - Have THESE Conversation Starter questions ready to help get the conversation flowing.
  - How to Go From Small talk to Meaningful Conversation... in a comfortable and natural way. Follow your curiosity. Think of dialog as exponential, break past the barrier of "boxes" within 3 layers deep. Don't bounce from topic to topic, but dive deeper within a single topic. The topic of conversation does not matter, it should be focused on the process of the conversation. And, listen (intentionally)! Not just to words, but actions. Reflect on what others share. And, with this, it is ok to stretch outside your comfort zone.
  - For off campus attendees who need parking options: THIS is where the event will take place and THIS is a map of the pay stations around campus.
- Attendee RSVP (HERE) is HIGHLY encouraged (helps us have a good head-count for the food) but not required. RSVP will get you week before and day before email reminders.
- Industry/Company RSVP is REQUIRED (HERE).
Coming Up:

- Graduate School Preparation & Funding - Getting in, surviving & thriving and being successful within Graduate School
  - What: Career and Professional Development Event
  - When: Thursday, September 22, 2022, 5 - 6:15 PM.
  - Where: Synchronous in-person (STAMM Room - CENT 1044) and virtual via Zoom (https://goto.unm.edu/esszoom)
  - Partners/Presenters: Dr. Kenneth Armijo of Sandia National Labs.
RSVP’s via https://ess.unm.edu/events or through our succESS app (https://success.unm.edu/events). RSVP is preferred but not required. RSVP will get you week before and day before email reminders.

What is the Conference? Are you a new researcher looking to present on your research, but need some help understanding conferences? Attend this workshop to learn about the structure of conferences, the expectations for turning your paper into an effective presentation. We will discuss expectations for conference panels, managing technology and other issues, and strategies for engaging with comments and critiques during the event, among other things. The workshop will emphasize practical tips and we encourage you to bring your questions and concerns! Following the presentation, students will have the opportunity to put tips into practice in a workshop setting driven by individual interest, which can include: editing, seeking feedback on, and sharing ideas or concerns about presentations with the help of instructors and peer attendees.

- Museum Research Traineeship (MRT) Program
Now accepting applications for the 2023 admissions

We are excited to announce a new graduate training program based at the University of New Mexico (UNM) -- the NSF-funded Museum Research Traineeship (MRT) Program. Please share the attached flyer with interested students who are looking to apply to graduate school for Fall 2023.

The MRT is an interdisciplinary graduate education and research training program centered in the science museums at UNM. Research themes are motivated by innovative ways to characterize, analyze, and integrate museum objects and associated data into studies of long-term change in human communities, natural systems, and their coupled interactions. The MRT leverages collections of anthropological, biological, and geological objects, artifacts, specimens and associated data, and technical centers in the UNM Interdisciplinary Science Coop that span areas of informatics and materials science. The program includes a professional workshop for career development and networking to academic, government, non-governmental, and private organizations.

The MRT provides competitive fellowships for MS and PhD students interested in interdisciplinary training in object-based science that draws elements from materials science, data science, retrospective analysis, and forecasting. Interested students are encouraged to apply following instructions on the MRT website. One of our primary aims is to enhance diversity in graduate programs in STEM, and to connect our trainees to professional opportunities in government, NGOs, the private sector, and academia.

We welcome and encourage applications by students representing all dimensions of diversity. We are particularly interested in applicants from underserved communities in the southwestern US. While fellowship awards are restricted by NSF rules to US citizens and permanent residents, we are pleased that international students may be considered for participation in many aspects of the MRT program.

Museum of Southwestern Biology (MSB) Nature Walks - Fridays at Noon
This fall members of the Museum of Southwestern Biology (MSB) will be leading a weekly on-campus nature walk mid-day on Fridays. These walks are intended to share understanding and appreciation of the natural world even in our urban setting. These events will also promote involvement in community science through documentation of the plants, fungi, animals, algae, and all else we observe. MSB Nature Walks are informal, and open to the entire UNM community, with each walk led by a volunteer leader from the MSB. We will meet at the bridge at the UNM Duck Pond on Fridays at 12:00pm each week that campus is open. These events are open to anyone interested - students, faculty, staff, family, friends, retirees - all are welcome!

Join us for an exciting series that will explore different ways to mitigate climate change effects on human health by working with nature. From national parks to coastal regions, we’ll learn what we can do to make a difference and help ensure a healthy planet for ourselves and the generations to come.

Did you take an ethnic studies in high school in APS?
Free confidential counseling
The UNM Counseling Program is excited to be offering free confidential counseling for children, adolescents, adults, couples, and families this semester on our UNM main campus clinic. This center is a training center for our advanced graduate students under supervision from our amazing UNM faculty and licensed professional counselors. These sessions will last 50 minutes and allow clients to be seen each week throughout the Fall semester. These sessions will be video recorded for supervision purposes and stored in a secure HIPAA compliant space. Appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday all the way until 7 pm.

Please call us at 505-277-7311 to complete a brief telephone screening to determine that our services are best for you. We look forward to hearing from you soon!
