Weekly ESS Center Announcements

Week of July 9, 2024

Please share as you feel appropriate.

These weekly announcements are sent out on Tuesdays.

If you would like us to include your information, please send it to yadeeh@unm.edu by Friday at 5 PM.

ESS HOTLINE: 505-277-4354 | E-mail: ess@unm.edu | Website: ess.unm.edu

Food for Thought: Do you know…
The ESS team and SoE Advisors work closely together to provide you with a well-rounded support system. Through part of that partnership, we put together a document to help you know which services and opportunities are available to you through the SOE or your specific departments. It’s hosted on the ESS homepage, but also here:

THIS WEEK

Stop by and say hi!
Critical Thinking and Pop Science

This session isn’t just about how to think critically, but just as importantly, how it relates to pop science. Our intent for today is to help you thinking critically about information you come across will help you better understand the information. As Engineers and computer scientists, you have to make sure you are helping others understand what is credible and what is not. Take your critical thinking skills to the next level - apply them to what you see all over social media and the Internet. This workshop discusses how to recognize and cultivate clear, logic-based analyses of controversial scientific topics in the context of modern political and popular culture.

- What: Summer Bridge Sessions
- Partners/Presenters: ESS Center’s very own Yadéeh Sawyer and Nada Abdelhack
- Where: Synchronous in-person (in the ESS suite - CENT 2080 - Albuquerque Main Campus) and virtual via Zoom (https://goto.unm.edu/esszoom).
- When: Monday, August 5, 2024. 10 - 11:15 AM.

RSVP HERE
Metrics & Scientific Notation

Our intent for this session is review or introduce concepts of metrics, conversion between systems, as well as within like systems, and address scientific notation and significant figures. All which are fundamental to accurate problem solving in STEM fields.

- What: Summer Bridge Sessions
- Partners/Presenters: ESS Center's very own Yadéeah Sawyer and Nada Abdelhack
- Where: Synchronous in-person (in the ESS suite - CENT 2080) and virtual via Zoom (https://goto.unm.edu/esszoom).

Basic Excel

Our intent for this session is to help make you more comfortable with Microsoft Excel© by introducing you to some basic functions that you can explore more in depth on your own, but not the only way to do things. We will cover the basics of entering data, all the way through graphing and equations, with many shortcuts and tips along the way.

- What: Summer Bridge Sessions
- Partners/Presenters: ESS Center’s very own Yadéeh Sawyer and Nada Abdelhack
- Where: Synchronous in-person (in the ESS suite - CENT 2080) and virtual via Zoom (https://goto.unm.edu/esszoom).
- When: Wednesday, August 7, 2024. 10 AM - 12 PM.
- More info: If you plan to use your own computer, it is easiest if you have the most recent version of Excel on your device (NOT the web-based software). It is FREE to UNM students and available HERE.
How to get into a research lab & Ethics

Our intent for this session is to give you a good understanding of the multitude of ways to get into a research lab as an undergraduate from how to get started to building bridges and landing that position. As well as the importance of ethical practices within your research experience, but also your undergraduate journey, and especially in your professional career.

- What: Summer Bridge Sessions
- Partners/Presenters: ESS Center’s very own Yadéeah Sawyer and Nada Abdelhack
- Where: Synchronous in-person (in the ESS suite - CENT 2080) and virtual via Zoom (https://goto.unm.edu/esszoom).
- When: Thursday, August 8, 2024. 10 - 11:15 AM.

RSVP HERE
University Resources & Advisement

Our intent for this session is to introduce you to and remind you of all the amazing things UNM has to offer - many beyond what you found out about at your NSO. And, learn how your advisor is more than just a person to remove your holds.

- What: Summer Bridge Sessions
- Partners/Presenters: ESS Center's very own Yadéeh Sawyer and Nada Abdelhack
- Where: Synchronous in-person (in the ESS suite - CENT 2080 - Albuquerque Main Campus) and virtual via Zoom (https://goto.unm.edu/esszoom).

Fall semester course: FYEX 1110. Exploring Engineering, Computer Science, & Construction Management: Imagine, Design, Engineer, Build!

CRN 77845
Tuesdays/Thursdays, 2 - 3:15

An Academic Communities Course for students interested in discovering more about the School of Engineering.

In this course, students will explore the various fields of engineering, computer science, and construction management at UNM, as well as develop supportive skills to help them succeed in their academic journey. Students will engage in hands-on, interdisciplinary, and team work through a design experience.

ESS Fall Semester Event Line Up

- You are WELCOME to ALL events.
- All of our events are FREE.
- WIN a Gift Card. GAIN experience. BUILD your skill set. ENHANCE your resume.
- Employers seek students who are career ready (https://unm5.unm.edu/), so seek out opportunities to develop these skills. We offer many in our various events throughout each academic year.

ESS Center collaborates with various offices and departments across UNM, as well as community partners in the STEM industry to provide workshops, events, or skills that help build School of Engineering student self-efficacy, preparedness, and success. We believe in supporting student success and retention through a holistic approach to their educational experience. The goal is to better assist students in preparation for their future careers.
Need help in your summer courses? Our tutors are available to help you

Each semester, ESS hires School of Engineering students within each engineering discipline to provide tutoring for each subject. Schedules are posted at the beginning of the semester and include days, times and locations of every tutoring session.

You can see the schedule on our Tutoring webpage (along with Meet Our Tutors), or through the easy drop down selection through our succESS web-app.

Applications open for biotech research grant for undergraduates

Nucleate Dojo, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that is focused on catalyzing and supporting undergraduate biotech talent, has launched applications for Dojo Grants, a year-round scholarship that empowers undergraduates from the U.S. and Canada to engage in lab-based life sciences research at any of the leading academic institutions in the U.S. Grants are flexible (on average, $5,000) based on students' needs, and will last for the duration of the 2024-2025 academic year.

“We see a lot of alignment with your institution, as our primary focus is to provide stipend support to students from diverse and underrepresented backgrounds in STEM and lower the barrier to entry to access research opportunities.

One specialized grant we’re offering that would be of particular interest is the Latinx Students in Biotech Research Award. We also have specialized awards for Black Students in Biotech and Indigenous Students in Biotech.”

Applications will close here on July 21, 2024 at 11:59pm PT.

Revolutionizing Campus Navigation: UNM Launches Interactive Campus Map

Navigating The University of New Mexico's vibrant campus just got easier with the launch of an online, interactive campus map. Designed to modernize and streamline campus experiences for students, staff, faculty and visitors alike, this innovative tool revolutionizes how we find our destinations at UNM. The new interactive campus map offers a robust set of features, including but not limited to:

- Wayfinding with turn-by-turn directions to anywhere on campus
- Easy to find parking zones and shuttle routes
- Visibility of road closures and construction areas
- Looking for food? Use the map to find locations near you.
- Custom print maps are available through the platform for a variety of needs, like events on campus or class schedules
• For Staff & Faculty, QR Code generation is available to open at specific locations, like The Welcome Center or Popejoy Hall. Click ‘Feedback’ on the map to request yours!

The Interactive Campus Map is a collaborative effort supported by a diverse team from across UNM. With over 25 dedicated members from various areas such as Institutional Support Services, Environmental Health & Safety, Athletics, Health Sciences, and more, this resource is continuously improved and updated. The working group meets bi-annually to address institutional needs, while each member independently manages and updates their specific content areas. If a UNM department is interested in contributing to this dynamic project, you are warmly invited to join the working group. For more information about the Interactive Campus Map or to join the working group, please go to https://ccsp.unm.edu/campus-maps.

The map is available now at https://goto.unm.edu/campusmap and can be accessed on any smartphone or computer. We encourage all students, faculty, and staff to explore the map and take advantage of its many features.

University Libraries IT to host Web Development Workshop

The University Libraries is excited to announce a new, high-level introductory summer workshop on web development, available to all staff, faculty, and students. This workshop, developed by the University Libraries IT applications team, is designed for individuals with little to no experience in web development, offering a fantastic opportunity to gain foundational skills in a growing field. The course will be conducted over three sessions in July. Each session will focus on one of the three main front-end technologies. All sessions will take place on Wednesday at 2 p.m. – 4 p.m. in the Fine Arts and Design Library, Classroom 426.

To sign up, please visit [goto.unm.edu/webdev] goto.unm.edu/webdev

UNM On-Going Resources

UNM TimelyCare

Remember that as a UNM student, you have access to free, 24/7 virtual health care services and support through UNM TimelyCare, including on-demand medical care, mental health and emotional support, basic needs assistance, and health coaching. It’s another way of providing you with a wide range of resources that will help achieve a sense of well-being, live healthier lifestyles and improve mental health. But please don’t wait until you need it; set up your account now, so the moment you do need services or support, you’ll be ready to go.
LoboEats
(developed by one of our very own CS students)
https://food.unm.edu/sustainability/lobo-eats/find-food.html

LoboEats is a brand new app that enables UNM organizations and departments to post when they have free food available to share with other Lobos. LoboEats connects UNM students, faculty, and staff with organizations and departments that have leftover food from catered events. This app will help reduce food waste and aid food-insecure individuals within the campus community.

Lobo Food Pantry Summer Hours

Food insecurity comes in many forms and impacts all aspects of your life.
~30-40% of UNM students are housing/food insecure, and ~50% are first generation.

Free confidential counseling

The UNM Counseling Program is excited to be offering free confidential counseling for children, adolescents, adults, couples, and families this semester on our UNM main campus clinic. This center is a training center for our advanced graduate students under supervision from our amazing UNM faculty and licensed professional counselors. These sessions will last 50 minutes and allow clients to be seen each week throughout the Fall semester. These sessions will be video recorded for supervision purposes and stored in a secure HIPAA compliant space. Appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday all the way until 7 pm.

Please call us at 505-277-7311 to complete a brief telephone screening to determine that our services are best for you. We look forward to hearing from you soon!

Open Chalk Night

Even if you don’t want to present, it’s a great opportunity to learn!

Open chalk night is a monthly meetup for graduate and undergraduate students to practice presenting mathematics at a blackboard to an audience. Modeled after the Graduate Teaching Seminar presentations and open mic nights where would-be musicians play songs to a distracted audience, this event is a time for students to socialize and develop comfort communicating mathematics and recovering from mistakes.

Here’s how it works: Bring a problem, sign up to present on the sign-in sheet, wait your turn, then take the chalk and present. Problems can come from anywhere (homework, contests, etc), but please keep it to something that can be presented in 5-10 minutes.

Snacks and beverages will be provided.

Weekly UNM Nature Walks

If you've never joined us before, Nature Walk is a weekly event hosted by the Museum of Southwestern Biology. We meet every Friday at noon at the UNM Duck Pond for an hour-ish walk around campus to explore the nature around us. Many times, this includes teaching newcomers how to use community science apps like iNaturalist and eBird (especially during BioBlitz time), but we've also done themed walks like duck anatomy illustration, turtle counts, an arboretum tour, edible plants, and more! Further details on our event page.

Bio Blog Posts

“BioBLOG is about writing and communicating science. We aim to make the cool stuff we do in Biology accessible to a broader audience and in the process become better ambassadors of science. Some of our blogs are funny, some are serious, and the topics are vast. Some are exceptionally well-written and some not so much. But they are in the student’s voices. The students are endlessly creative and new ideas for posts are always showing up,” Smith noted.
We hope to see you around.
