Dream Keepers Summer program (DKS) encourages Indigenous High School students to explore educational and professional opportunities. Through fun experiences and time to reflect on their dreams, youth learn about what it is like to be in college and to have careers in the fields of agriculture, consumer sciences, environmental sciences, engineering, and business. The DKS staff is committed to giving space for young Indigenous people to explore their dreams, goals, and work towards achieving them!

Dates:
- Application Due: APRIL 15TH!! 2019 at 5:00 pm
- Program Dates: June 16-28, 2019

Location:
All activities will be based out of the New Mexico State University main campus in Las Cruces, New Mexico

Who is eligible:
Indigenous High School Students, finishing grades 9-12 in New Mexico

Cost: Free!

DreamKeepers 2019
- College prep activities to assist students in creating a plan to achieve their educational goals
- Introduction to college opportunities and experiences
- Interactive workshops in agriculture, consumer and environmental sciences, business, and engineering
- Powerful guest presenters from the community, such as Kim Smith of Indigenous Goddess Gang
- Field trips to nearby organizations, businesses, and nature excursions
- Mentoring and fun activities with Indigenous college students
- Concert, with surprise guest, at the end of the week!

To apply:
Find the application online at: https://ird.nmsu.edu
Submit to: Fax: 575-646-5975 or Email: ird@nmsu.edu

New Mexico State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and educator. NMSU and the U.S. Department of Agriculture cooperating.